

Taking the next step

Precious Enow, Sadre Hmuntaha Kamli, Nicole Ackerman, and Alhabe Harmans at the Teen-Turn induction at Griffith College, Cork, before beginning summer work experience with Dell. Under the Teen-Turn summer work experience programme, 44 companies and nearly 100 teenage girls nationwide will participate in on-site STEM learning for two weeks. Mentors and mentees met for the first time at Griffith College, where the programme was launched.
